

AT THE BOAT CLUBS.

Healants and Myrtles Both Had Crews Out Sunday Morning.

At the Healani clubhouse Sunday morning about thirty of the members were on hand. Two four-oared shells and one four-oared barge were out during the morning with practice crews. The new shell received by the Alameda was one of the boats out and gave good satisfaction.

A few of the Myrtle boys were also at their boathouse and two single-oared boats were out with Sorenson and Norman Halstead at the oars. The latter tipped over twice. The first time the Bennington's launch started to his assistance and the second time he managed to get into his seat again without assistance, a somewhat difficult feat.

The Healani reading room and verandas were well patronized during the day by members and their friends.

"Are you married?" said the manager to a man who was looking for a situation. "No, sir." "Then I can't employ you. We had that married men know better how to obey than bachelors."

"All is fair in love and war, isn't it?" she said. "I don't know," he replied doubtfully; "I've been in love a good many times, but I never was married."

The American minister who had a difficulty in keeping his parishioners' eyes fixed on him during the sermon solved it by placing a large clock directly behind him.

"Are there many men here?" asked the new comer. "No," replied the girl who has been here a week, as she tightened her belt, "not enough to go around."

FITS CURED

(From U. S. Journal of Medicine.)
Dr. W. H. Peck, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, without doubt treated and cured more cases than any other Physician in his success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 20 years' standing cured by him. He publishes a valuable work on this disease which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send their P. O. and Express address. We advise anyone wishing a cure to address, Dr. W. H. PECK, P. O. 4 Cedar St., New York.
